01 The category "Social Responsibility"

The category "Social Responsibility"

Advice: Take a look at our Online-Presentation. There you will find a compilation of all winners. In case you are not sure which sub-category to choose, do not hesitate to contact us.

If it emerges during the course of the Red Dot jury session that your project should be transferred to a different (sub-) category for a better assessment, we reserve the right to do so. This will not result in any further costs or any disadvantages for you within the competition.

02 Registration of your project

Registration

The project can only be registered online in the My Red Dot portal. In order to get to the registration form, please login to My Red Dot with your personal access data and click on "Register project". If you do not yet have a My Red Dot account, you can register at any time.

Forgot password?

In case you forgot your password, just click on "Forgot password?" and a new one will be sent to the e-mail you have entered during the registration process. In case you forgot your user-name, please contact us.

(Partially) completing your registration

You have the option to complete your registration without uploading images and entering a description text. Please note, however, that the registration must be completed by the end of the registration phase.

(Compulsory-) information

Compulsory information in order to finalise the registration are:

- Details on the project (All details must be provided in English. A German translation is optional.)
- Contact data of client and designer
- Invoice data

The following information must be completed by the end of the registration phase on 10 June 2016, midnight (CET). The registration portal closes afterwards. Please keep in mind that changes are not possible after this deadline.

- For the International Yearbook: Please upload six images of your project as EPS-, TIF- or JPG-Format in CMYK, 300dpi in DIN A4: 210 x 297 mm
- Description text about the project (at least 500 characters, no more than 1,200 characters)
- Credits: names and functions of project participants

Physical submission

Send us your project as an original or as a print-out on a presentation chart. The delivery has to be accomplished within 6 June – 24 June 2016.

Digital submission

Submit your digital material via URL or by uploading it in the My Red Dot portal. You are able to upload your digital project during our whole registration phase (29 February – 10 June 2016).

Cross-media submission

In the case of cross-media entries, send us the physical and the digital part of your work. Please note: the two submissions should complete each other and not repeat each other.

Multiple entries

You are welcome to submit a piece of work in several categories. However, please complete a separate registration form for each entry and for every category in which you wish to submit this work. Separate material must be provided for each entry. Please also keep in mind that a work cannot be entered in several sub-categories within one category.

Publication of your details

If applicable, your details may be published by our communications department already before the final assessment and approval by the yearbook production team. As a result, please ensure that all details (e.g. project and company description) are correct and could be published after completion of the registration process. If you have a communication embargo up until a specific date, please inform us of this so that we can take this into account: press@red-dot.de

03 Preparation of your entry

Physical submissions

Concerning the physical submission you have two options: To send in your project as an original or as a print-out on a presentation chart.

Original

After completing the online registration in My Red Dot, you will receive a confirmation e-mail. This e-mail contains an attachment with your individual PI codes. Please attach these PI codes to the back of all physical project elements and as well at the back of your package. This label guarantees that your work will be clearly identifiable on delivery and can be allocated correctly for the judging process. Please make sure that the PI code label can be removed without leaving a trace, so your product can be presented in our exhibitions in the best possible way, if it wins an award.

Presentation charts

Projects that comprise several individual parts (e.g. notepaper, photos, logo, etc.) should be reproduced on a black, matt mounting board (300 g/m²) in DIN A2 format (594 x 420 mm) – horizontally or vertically. For works that comprise several presentation charts that have a specific sequence, please number them on the back according to their sequence (1/3, 2/3, 3/3 ...). Please remember to attach the barcode label for better logistical classification on each chart.

Delivery of physical projects

Our logistics team will be available to accept your delivery from 6 June – 24 June 2016 (Mo-Fr) from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. You can send in your project via post or deliver it personally. Important: Please remember to attach the PI code for better logistical classification. In case you are delivering your project from a none-EU-country, please prepare a proforma-invoice as well as a delivery note. In case you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Return of physical projects

During the registration process you can select whether we should return the physical elements of your project to you after the Red Dot jury session. The costs for this amount up to EUR 95.00 (plus value added tax). Your project will of course be insured by us during the return. Please ensure to state the insurance value of your work during registration!

Delivery address

Design Zentrum Nordrhein Westfalen e.V.
Red Dot Award: Communication Design
Red Dot judging hall
Witzlebenstraße 14
45472 Mülheim an der Ruhr
Germany

Delivery times

6 June – 24 June 2016, Mo-Fr from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Digital submissions

Submit your digital material via URL or by uploading it in the My Red Dot portal (Delivery time: 29 February – 10 June 2016).

Accepted formats

- Film: MOV or MP4 (1,280 x 720 pixels)
- Images: JPG or PNG, max. 2,000 x 800 pixels (width x height), quantity: min. 3, max. 10 images
- Sound files: MP3 or WAV
- Other permitted formats: PPS, PPSX or PDF

Please name your files using Latin characters and do not use any special characters, so that we can open your files without any problems.

Cross-media submissions

Physical and digital material

In case of cross-media entries, send us the physical and the digital part of your work and thus to present your project completely. Please deliver your physical project within the restrictions and upload your digital project within the restrictions at My Red Dot portal.

Please note: the two submissions should complete each other and not repeat each other. To give an example: It would be wrong to enter presentation charts and to provide the same charts as well as PPS, PPSX or PDF. In this case we would present only the physical work.

Additional digital material

Additional material

You are welcome to upload additional digital material in My Red Dot free of charge for every entry. This additional material should help the jury - if necessary - to understand your work and the special features of your design concept.

Please understand that additional material is a further, voluntary source of information for your entry and do not repeat the main material in any additional material provided. Additional material would be e.g. an explanation video or presentation according to your project.

06 Next Steps!

- Have you registered your project online?
- Have you received a confirmation e-mail?
- Have you added a description and photos or images to your registration?
- Have you paid for your registration?

Perfect! This is what happens next:

In July 2016, international experts in communication design will meet to assess your project. The jury session for the Red Dot Award: Communication Design does not have any digital preselection and there is no shortlist. All participants are subject to the same conditions, as the Red Dot jury assesses every project after intensive discussion – live and in-situ.

Code of Honor

By the way: no Red Dot jury member can enter his/her own projects or collaborative projects in a year in which he/she is acting as a juror. This allows us to guarantee a neutral selection process. Three weeks after the Red Dot jury session, we will inform you of the result via e-mail.

Those who have succeeded in winning over the Red Dot jury must book their winner package directly after the results are announced. This secures the entry in the International Yearbook Communication Design 2016/2017, the Red Dot winner label and the exhibition of your project in the Red Dot museums around the world and in the numerous Red Dot on Tour exhibitions.

On 4 November 2016 this year's winners will be celebrated at the Red Dot Gala & Designers' Night in Berlin! We wish you good luck!
